

PCORI Health Equity Two-Part Webinar Series 2021

February 26th, 2021 10:00 AM-12:00 PM

Health Equity and Research in Practice: A Virtual Convening Session #1

Purpose: share PCOR, gain community reactions, patient/caregiver feedback, put research into action

Topic #1: Patient Centered Outcomes Research: An Overview

30 Minutes

Denese Neu (?), Tom Scheid, Carrie Baker-Role of HCGC and PCORI dissemination/reason for convening

OBJECTIVES:

Patients/Families	Providers (all types)	Community Groups	Researchers	Payers/ Administrators
Understand PCORI/PCOR, HCGC and convening series' purpose	Understand PCORI/PCOR, HCGC and convening series' purpose	Understand PCORI/PCOR, HCGC and convening series' purpose	Understand PCORI/PCOR, HCGC and convening series' purpose	Understand the funding of PCORI/PCOR, HCGC and convening series' purpose
Describe 3 ways in which patients/families can utilize PCOR	Describe 3 ways in which providers can utilize PCOR	Describe 3 ways in which community non-profit/governments can utilize PCOR and support applications of researchers	Describe 3 ways in which researchers can utilize PCOR as well as apply for additional PCOR funding	Describe 3 ways in which payers/administrators can utilize PCOR as well as apply for additional PCOR funding
Show how health inequity affects patients and families	Provide information on background/history of inequity in healthcare	Share background/history of policy that has driven health inequity	Understand how research of current public health crisis demonstrate the serious issue of health inequity	Understand the impacts, including financial, of health inequities
Provide 3 examples of what patients and families can do to drive change in equity	Share 4 stories of patients who have experienced inequity in their healthcare experience.	Describe 3 efforts of local nonprofits or legislative action or a collaboration of the two to address health inequity	Share 3 studies of addressing health inequity	Share 3 examples of the benefits of addressing health inequities

Share areas of interest for future sessions/future research topics of interest to patients	Share areas of interest for future sessions	Share areas of interest for future sessions	Share areas of interest for future sessions	Share areas of interest for future sessions
Networking	Networking	Networking	Networking	Networking

Topic #2: Health Equity in Communities

60 Minutes

- o Al Richmond, MSW, executive director of Community-Campus Partnerships for Health, which promotes health equity and social justice initiatives between communities and academic institutions (need to make sure his PCOR/PCORI involvement is front and center/highlight PCOR related to his work)

Topic #3: Health Equity Facilitated Panel: Patients, Providers and Payers

30 Minutes

- o Panelists: Dr. Joshua Joseph, OSU Wexner Center; Erin Brigham, CareSource; Kim Wilson-Lawson, Wellness First; Angi Lee (parent perspective)
- o Caroline Carter and McKenzie Carter, Facilitators

April 2nd, 2021 10:00 AM-12:00 PM

Health Equity and Research in Practice: A Virtual Convening, Session #2

Purpose: share PCOR, gain community reactions, patient/caregiver feedback, put research into action

o Patients/ Families	Providers (all types)	Non-profit/ Gov't	Researchers	Payers/ Administrators
Understand how maternal mortality affects communities	Understand the racial and socioeconomic history and background of the maternal mortality crisis	Understand the history of policy and legislation that have impacted maternal mortality outcomes	Understand the importance of continued research regarding health inequity how it effects maternal mortality	Understand the impacts of maternal mortality

Describe 3 ways that patients and families can engage to decrease the incidence of maternal mortality	Describe 3 clinical efforts to combat infant mortality	Describe 3 recent/current efforts to combat maternal mortality	Describe 3 evidence based, research backed practices that have addressed the maternal mortality crisis	Describe 3 evidence based, research backed practices that have addressed the maternal mortality crisis and how payers/ administrators can support them
Understand how chronic disease and mental health are related in their affect on patients and families	Understand the connection between mental health and chronic disease	Understand the impact of the chronic disease and mental health on the community	Understand the importance of continuing to research how chronic disease affects mental health	Understand the impact of the chronic disease and mental health
Describe 3 ways that patients/ families can engage the healthcare system to address mental health and chronic disease management for themselves or their families	Describe clinical efforts to address mental health issues associated with chronic disease	Describe 3 policy or nonprofit initiatives that have addressed the mental health issues associated with chronic disease	Describe 3 current/ recent research studies re: chronic disease and mental health	Describe 3 ways payers/ administrators can promote and support efforts to address the mental health issues associated with chronic disease
Share solutions	Share solutions	Share solutions	Share solutions	Share solutions
Networking	Networking	Networking	Networking	Networking

FACILITATED ZOOM BREAKOUT SESSIONS (Please choose 1):

60 Minutes

Topic #1: Addressing Maternal Mortality

- Shawnita Sealy-Jefferson, Founder, Director, and Principal Investigator of the Social Epidemiology to Eliminate Disparities (SEED) Lab, Ohio State University College of Public Health
- ROOTT involvement/story/CHW story: Tanikka will reach out to facilitate Q&A, strategic questions/slido polls/patient experience for 15 of the 60 minutes

Topic #2: Chronic Disease in Minority Populations

- “Comparing Ways to Reduce High Blood Pressure in People from Different Backgrounds -- The RICH LIFE” Study Link: <https://www.pcori.org/research-results/2015/comparing-ways-reduce-high-blood-pressure-people-different-backgrounds-rich>
- Chris Brown, MD, Adena Health shares his diabetes perspective/public health perspective and facilitates facilitate Q&A, strategic questions/slido polls/patient experience for 15 of the 60 minutes

Topic #3: Mental Health Considerations in Minority Populations

- “Comparing Two Web-Based Programs for Improving People's Experience and Shared Decision Making in Mental Health Care” Study Link: <https://www.pcori.org/research-results/2013/comparing-two-web-based-programs-improving-peoples-experience-and-shared>
- Seleshi Asfaw, MD, ETSS shares his diabetes perspectives on working with MH/BH in minority populations/new Americans and facilitates facilitate Q&A, strategic questions/slido polls/patient experience for 15 of the 60 minutes

Topic #4: COVID Needs in Hispanic Communities

- Dr. Glenn Martinez, a Spanish professor at OSU, COVID-19 needs of Hispanic communities (They presented initial findings during the Ohio Latino Affairs Summit on November 13, 2020)
- Mary Ann G. Abiardo, PhD, MSN, RN shares her perspectives as a PCORI ambassador and facilitates facilitate Q&A, strategic questions/slido polls/patient experience for 15 of the 60 minutes

Topic #5: Facilitators Report out and Patient Reactions

45 Minutes

- Breakout facilitators report out participant reactions, questions, patient engagement strategies
- Pre-prepped patients (Stacy Murphy, PFAC Broad Street Representative, Matthew Demoulin) to offer reactions, facilitated by Tom Scheid

Topic #6: Next Steps and Close Out

15 Minutes

- Carrie Baker will move into next steps and wrap up of series, build in evaluation time, final slido poll/word cloud as a “check out”